JUNE IN REVIEW

Covid-19 Lockdown

For most of June, Glenview was in lockdown due to Covid-19 and as such group activities came to a halt. However, during lockdown Leisure and Lifestyle team members spent one to one time completing daily individual chosen activities with residents.

Before restriction came into place, we were able to celebrate the Queens Jubilee and start our wooden tissue box holders made at the Men's Shed Chiltern.

Emma Lazarus, (born July 22, 1849, in New York), was an American poet best known for her sonnet "The New Colossus," written to the Statue of Liberty.

Cancer (June 21 – July 22)

Cancer personalities are very emotional and sensitive, and care deeply about matters of the family and their home.

Leo (July 23 – August 22)

Leos are natural born leaders. They are able to achieve anything they commit to.

WOW!

The origins of the month of July

July was named in honor of Julius Caesar. Quintilis, which was his birth month, was renamed July when he died. Quintilis means "fifth month" in Latin, which represents where this month originally fell in the Roman calendar.

The New Colossus

By Emma Lazarus

Not like the brazen giant of Greek fame,
With conquering limbs astride from land to land;
Here at our sea-washed, sunset gates shall stand
A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame
Is the imprisoned lightning, and her name
Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand
Glows world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command
The air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame.

"Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!" cries she
With silent lips. "Give me your tired, your poor,
Your huddled masses yearning to breathe free,
The wretched refuse of your teeming shore.
Send these, the homeless, tempest-tost to me,
I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

Thank you!

Laughing Matters

Joke submitted by Edna Eaton

President George W. Bush is visiting an elementary school and enters one of the classes. They are in the middle of a discussion related to words and their meanings. The teacher asks the President if he would like to lead the class in the discussion of the word, "TRAGEDY". So the illustrious leader asks the class for an example of a "tragedy."

One little boy stands up and offers, "If my best friend, who lives on a farm, is playing in the field and a tractor runs him over, that would be a tragedy."

"No," says Bush, "that would be an ACCIDENT."

A little girl raises her hand: "If a school bus carrying 50 children drove off a cliff, killing everyone involved; that would be a tragedy."

"I'm afraid not," explains Mr. President. "That's what we would call a GREAT LOSS."

The room goes silent. No other children volunteer.

President Bush searches the room. "Isn't there someone here who can give me an example of a tragedy?"

Finally, way in the back of the room, a small boy raises his hand.

In a quiet voice he says, "If Air Force One, carrying Mr. Bush and Mrs. Bush, were struck by a missile and blown up to smithereens, by a terrorist like Osama bin Laden, that would be a tragedy."

"Fantastic," exclaims Bush, "that's right. And can you tell me WHY that would be a TRAGEDY?"

"Well," says the boy, "because it wouldn't be an accident, and it certainly wouldn't be a great loss."
